

the Line Item Veto Act. For the next several years, this act gives the President authority, within carefully circumscribed limits, to cancel particular items of appropriation, direct spending, or limited tax benefits. The President must send Congress a special message reporting his cancellations within five days after he approves the bill containing the spending or tax provisions, and Congress may then consider, under expedited procedures, whether to pass a new law disapproving the President's cancellation.

Congress delegated this responsibility to the President as a means of furthering our goal of balancing the federal budget. Congress's enactment of the Line Item Veto Act followed vigorous debate in the Senate, in which some opponents raised doubts about the law's constitutionality. All Members recognized that these constitutional questions likely ultimately would be resolved only in the Supreme Court.

Last January, the day after the law took effect, in the case of Byrd v. Raines, six of our colleagues filed suit challenging the constitutionality of the Line Item Veto Act. On January 22, 1997, the Senate directed the Senate Legal Counsel to appear on behalf of the Senate as amicus curiae in Byrd v. Raines to defend the constitutionality of the Line Item Veto Act. In June the Supreme Court dismissed the case on the basis that the plaintiffs lacked legal standing to bring their suit. The Court did not address the constitutional question.

In August, the President began using the Line Item Veto Act's cancellation authority for the first time. As a result of the President's cancellations, three new actions have recently been filed in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia again challenging the constitutionality of the Act. The plaintiffs assert that the Act violates the lawmaking provisions of Article I of the Constitution by authorizing the President to nullify the effect of portions of recently enacted laws. These challenges call into question the full range of cancellation authority provided by Congress in the Act, as the three cases address direct spending, discretionary appropriations, and limited tax benefits, respectively.

Mr. President, as with the Senate's appearance amicus curiae in Byrd v. Raines, appearance in these cases as an amicus curiae would again enable the Senate to present to the courts its reasons for enacting the Line Item Veto Act and the basis for the Senate's conviction that the law is consistent with the Constitution. Accordingly, this resolution would authorize the Senate Legal Counsel to appear in these cases in the name of the Senate as amicus curiae to support the constitutionality of the Line Item Veto Act.

The Senate would not take a position on questions about the legal standing of any of these plaintiffs, as it did not in the prior litigation. However, as in the earlier litigation, the Senate Legal Counsel will be expected to describe to the courts, in the course of supporting the constitutionality of the Line Item Veto Act, the statutory limits embodied in the Act that constrain the President's use of this authority to the particular circumstances and conditions carefully prescribed by the Act.

Finally, this resolution also would authorize the Senate Legal Counsel to appear in the name of the Senate as amicus curiae to support the constitutionality of the Line Item Veto Act in any other cases challenging the constitutionality of the Act that may occur during the adjournment of the Senate, if authorized to do so by the Joint Leadership Group. This is the procedure the Senate has used in the past to protect its legal interests during adjournments.

Whereas, in the case of Sherry Yvonne Moore v. Capitol Guide Board, Case No. 1:97CV00823, pending in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, a subpoena has been issued for the production of documents of the Sergeant-at-Arms and Doorkeeper of the Senate;

Whereas, pursuant to sections 703(a) and 704(a)(2) of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, 2 U.S.C. 288b(a) and 288c(a)(2), the Senate may direct its counsel to represent Members, officers, and employees of the Senate with respect to any subpoena, order, or request for testimony or document production relating to their official responsibilities;

Whereas, by the privileges of the Senate of the United States and Rule XI of the Standing Rules of the Senate, no evidence under the control or in the possession of the Senate may, by the judicial or administrative process, be taken from such control or possession but by permission of the Senate;

Whereas, when it appears that evidence under the control or in the possession of the Senate may promote the administration of justice, the Senate will take such action as will promote the ends of justice consistently with the privileges of the Senate: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Sergeant-at-Arms and Doorkeeper of the Senate is authorized to produce documents relevant to the case of Sherry Yvonne Moore v. Capitol Guide Board, except where a privilege should be asserted.

SEC. 2. That the Senate Legal Counsel is authorized to represent the Sergeant-at-Arms and Doorkeeper of the Senate in connection with the production of documents in this case.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, the case of Sherry Yvonne Moore v. Capitol Guide Board, pending in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia under the Congressional Accountability Act, involves claims of employment discrimination by the plaintiff, former employee of the Sergeant at Arms who worked for the Capitol Guide Service.

The plaintiff in this case has issued a subpoena for documents to the Senate Sergeant at Arms. The enclosed resolution would authorize the Sergeant at Arms to produce such documents, except where a privilege or objection should be asserted. It would also authorize the Senate Legal Counsel to represent the Sergeant at Arms in connection with the production of such documents.

Whereas, in the case of Magee, et al. v. Hatch, et al., No. 97-CV02203, pending in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, the plaintiffs have named Senator Orrin Hatch as a defendant;

Whereas, pursuant to sections 703(a) and 704(a)(1) of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, 2 U.S.C. §§288b(a) and 288c(a)(1) (1994), the Senate may direct its counsel to defend its Members in civil actions relating to their official responsibilities: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate Legal Counsel is authorized to represent Senator Hatch in the case of Magee, et al. v. Hatch, et al.

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, Magee, et al. v. Hatch, et al. is an action arising out of Congress's enactment of the Anti-Terrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996. The suit names Senator Orrin G. Hatch and Speaker of the House Newt Gingrich as the sole defendants. This resolution authorizes the Senate Legal Counsel to represent Senator Hatch in this matter. If so authorized, the Senate Legal Counsel will seek dismissal of the complaint.

MAMMOGRAPHY QUALITY STANDARDS REAUTHORIZATION ACT

Mr. SESSIONS. I ask unanimous consent that the Labor and Human Resources Committee be discharged from further consideration of S. 537 and that the Senate then proceed to its immediate adjournment.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report.
